BMCR - Black Church Academy

As we prepare for our upcoming Academy, I am excited to share that our special guest will be Bishop Ruben Saenz, our new Episcopal Leader for the North Texas Conference (Bishop Saenz also leads the Central Texas Conference). Our conferences are on the path to reunification.

The Black Church Academy is a part of the overall BCI strategy geared toward resourcing black laity, leaders, and churches for vital and effective ministry. This year's academy will focus on resourcing church leaders in several areas: Discipleship, Young Adult Ministry, and Shifting to meet the needs of our ever-changing mission field. This year's presenters are Rev. Edlen Cowley, Metro DS (Discipleship), Melissa Clay (Lay member of The Village UMC and one of our Young Adult leaders on the BCI Team), and Rev. Dr. Michael Bowie (Executive Director of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century).

Our concluding panel discussion will include BMCR Leadership for North Texas, Phiebie Hutchins (NTC BMCR Chair) and Rev. Bryant Phelps (NTC BMCR Vice-Chair). We will also be joined by clergy and lay representatives from Central Texas. We look forward to expanding the connection to our brothers and sisters in Central Texas conference churches.

This will be a very impactful morning. We look forward to our time together and are excited about what we will experience and learn together.

There will also be details shared about our next gathering, a BMCR worship experience on April 30th, which will be held at Warren UMC and will be led by North Texas and Central Texas representatives.

"It's time for our annual Easter Egg Hunt and we are in need of donations. Please drop off plastic eggs and candy at the Children's Welcome Desk near the Trustee Bench and plan to join us for this super fun event on Saturday, April 1st from 11am-1pm. There will be food and fun for everyone! (no chocolate or peanuts please)

A volunteer opportunity is available to members interested in being a member of the response team at Hamilton Park UMC during worship services. We are in the process of re-establishing The Medical Response Team. CPR, AED and First-aid training will be provided. Thank you to the members who have volunteered to continue or to share their services and skills. Interested members please contact Dianne Pratt for additional information regarding this volunteer opportunity at 214-280-6391

Instant Pot® Vegan Chili

- 1 red bell pepper, diced
- 1 ½ cups water
- 4 tablespoons miso powder
- 4 tablespoons chili powder
- 2 tablespoons coconut milk powder
- 2 teaspoons ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- ½ teaspoon oregano
- 4 tablespoons vegetable broth powder (such as Seitenbacher® Vegetarian Vegetable Broth and Seasoning)
- 2 (16 ounce) cans 3-bean mix, drained and rinsed
- 1 (15 ounce) can black beans, drained and rinsed
- 1 (15 ounce) can pinto beans, drained and rinsed
- 1 (15 ounce) can whole kernel corn, drained
- 1 (10 ounce) can diced tomatoes
- 1 large onion, diced
- 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
- 1 (6 ounce) can chopped green chilies
- 4 cloves garlic, minced

Directions

Turn on a multi-functional pressure cooker (such as Instant Pot®) and select Saute function. Add onion and bell pepper and saute for 5 minutes.

Combine water, miso powder, chili powder, coconut milk powder, cumin, paprika, and oregano in a bowl and whisk until blended. Pour into the pot with the onion and add vegetable broth powder. Add 3-bean mix, black beans, pinto beans, corn, diced tomatoes, tomato sauce, green chiles, and garlic to the pot and simmer 5 minutes.

Close and lock the lid. Select high pressure according to manufacturer's instructions; set timer for 15 minutes. Allow 10 to 15 minutes for pressure to build.

Release pressure carefully using the quick-release method according to manufacturer's instructions, about 5 minutes. Unlock and remove the lid.

Cook's Notes: Use any color bell pepper you prefer. Feel free to wait for a natural release for the pressure cooker if you have the time.
