Father's Day Announcement

Father's Day is the day set aside to honor men who are fathers whether it be biological or as a mentor--all are needed--all are highly regarded, respected, and blessed. So we, at Hamilton Park UMC, join together in celebrating Father's Day, June 18, 2023. There will be accolades presented by our youth, a photo video presentation, and of course a reception for everyone! So be a part of the celebration! Submit your father photo with names to amosley@theparkumc.org by Sunday, June 11, 2023. Come out and join all of our fathers for a reception just for them and be in the moment. A Few Words from Fred Marsh regarding Arapaho UMC

Rev Sweeney, Rev Henderson and I will lead a breakout session at the Annual Conference on Monday, June 12, from 4:00 to 5:00 pm, entitled; Building an Antiracism and Racial Justice Model for Your Church. We will outline how Hamilton Park and Arapaho worked together as a model to address racism and Racial Justice.

I will be hosting some Arapaho members on June 17, at the city of Garland Juneteenth Celebration. Arapaho members want to experience Juneteenth and its cultural importance as a part of their journey toward racial justice and cross cultural experiences. Hopefully some Hamilton Park members would also attend the event in Garland. See Fred Marsh for details if you are interested
